SUMMER OF SELF LOVE

For me, summer really begins, July 1st. It's reliably hot and summery, winter feels like a distant dream and the libido starts to spike. How convenient that a sex blogger should have a lift in desire during the hottest months! And not a moment too soon since my review calendar is jam packed with cruel and unusual devices of titillating torture! It's going to be a busy, hectic, messy couple of months, but I'm here for it. I have decided this is a Summer of Self Love and I hope you'll join me on the blog for:

"July, that lovely hell, all velvet dresses and drapes stuffed into a hot little hole."

— Laura Kasischke

- all the mean toy reviews you can handle
- a sexy new audio porn project
- all the usual sex education and naughty content you love.

Stay safe, stay hydrated.
Happy summer!

MY NEWEST ACQUISITION FROM
JOHN THOMAS TOYS

John Thomas Toys is a favourite company of mine and they have filled up my review calendar with three new pieces for this summer: a stretcher, a dildo and a plug!

TERRIBLE TOYSHOP SPOILED ME!

"I don't often gasp and squeal when I open a box of toys for review - that usually comes later with the testing - but I did a giddy little happy dance when a box showed up from Terrible Toyshop."

I know I said this was the "Summer of Self Love" but "Summer of Sadomasochism" seems more accurate. I have a truly formidable new collection from Terrible Toyshop to test my way through this month. They truly make some deliciously evil devices and I am super-stoked to share all my findings with you.

THE BLOG DAYS OF SUMMER

Get hot and bothered all August long!

#TheBlogDaysofSummer

August 1st marks the beginning of the third annual Blog Days of Summer: a month-long creative blogging project for erotica and sex writers. The objective of the Blog Days of Summer is to write each day/as often as you can. The only rules are that your posts must be SEXY and inspired by/about SUMMER.

(Apologies to writers from the southern hemisphere - feel free to do a sexy summer theme for January Jumpstart)

words & pictures are kind of my thing

Let's collaborate! Whatever your art or design needs, we can work together to create: sponsored content, product reviews, guest posts, or illustration commissions!
