Up-coming Product Reviews

The Natural Love Company

Good for your body and good for the world, I'll be testing lube and toy cleaner from this amazing brand.

- discreet, plastic-free packaging
- all vegan & cruelty free
- they plant a tree for every purchase & review
- carbon neutral, baby!

The Baldo

Have you ever seen something so strange and delightful? The Baldo is a brand new design that transforms testicles into a dildo! Excellent for chastity situations, sensory enthusiasts and double penetration. You don't want to miss this review! It's going to be very informative as a partner helps me tackle this new technology.

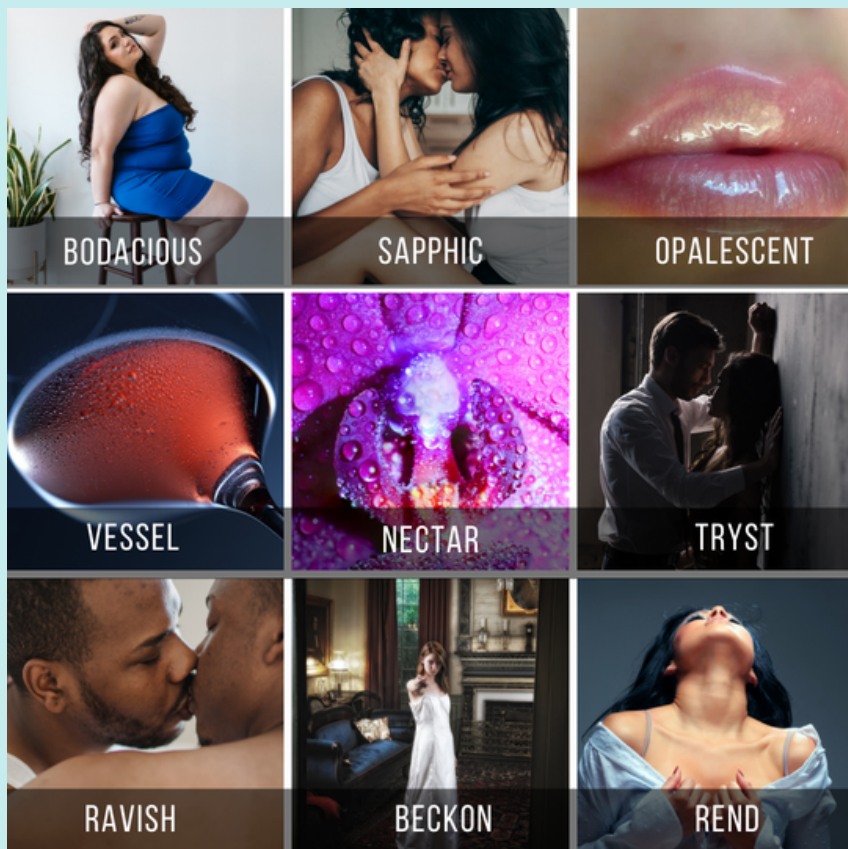

Terrible Toyshop

All aboard the (consensual) pain train! The next sexy torture devices from Terrible Toyshop are The Para-hell-ograms. Sold as a pair, these uniquely designed and 3D printed vices are hellishly cruel and wonderfully versatile.

While you wait for this review, check out my other Terrible Toyshop product reviews.

Write Big Sexy Words

9 seductive terms to heat up your writing this month

This month's words are simpler than some months, but no less libidinous! Spring is just around the corner in this hemisphere and creatures big and small are awakening into the throb and ache of spring fever. What's got your blood warming lately? Write about it!

- As always there are 3 of each: adjectives, verbs and nouns
- You're encouraged to use them in whatever tense you want or need to. Use one, or as many as you want.
- The full definitions are posted on the blog on the 5th of each month.

Sex Blogger Mini Spotlight: Lillith Avir

"I am a woman, in my 30s, living in Germany. I started exploring my submissive side years ago and this blog followed. At some point the exchange on Twitter was not enough and I needed a place to write down my thoughts, ideas, fantasies. So here I am. With my ramblings, stories and experiences."

This NSFW writing community is absolutely teeming with talent but some of it's members are quieter than others. Not one for showy self promotion, Lillith quietly puts out thoughtful, insightful and interesting pieces on life, love and kink. She is a talented blogger who focuses on kink dynamics in her writing and the ever-present challenges and realities of a long-distance kink relationship. Her work is filled with honesty and longing, curiosity and anticipation. Lillith's ongoing fortnightly writing meme, No True Way poses writing prompts encouraging discourse on the subjectivity of D/s kinks and the misconceptions surrounding them.
